

An illustration of Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe, walking on a dirt path. He is holding the hand of a man in a blue robe and a red head covering. To his left is a woman in a green dress and a blue shawl, holding a wooden staff. They are walking towards a small village built on a hill in the background. The landscape is green with rolling hills, a large tree on the left, and a small bird on a branch on the right. A butterfly is visible in the bottom right corner.
